

Marsh Madness Festival

March 1&2, 2019

Humphrey's Park, Highway 54, Linton IN

The Marsh Madness Festival will be a destination for visitors from across the Midwest by celebrating the county's richly abundant and inherently beautiful natural areas, the centerpiece of which will be the spring migration of waterfowl and cranes to Goose Pond Fish and Wildlife Area. Interpretive programs, educational material and artistic displays will inspire festival goers while instilling in them a strong conservation ethic.

Marsh Madness is brought to you in a cooperative effort by the Friends of Goose Pond, , Carnegie Heritage and Art Center, The City of Linton, Sassafras Audubon Society, and Indiana Division of Fish & Wildlife.
